

Matthew McCaskill

www.linkedin.com/in/matthew-mccaskill

Goodyear, AZ 85395

(623) 377 3772 • me@mattm.dev

CAREER PROFILE

Highly motivated Computer Science candidate with a strong foundation in software development. Strong ability to quickly resolve hardware and software problems to minimize disruptions in operations. Proven history of facilitating adoption of innovative solutions and training end users on new software. Excited to contribute to a mission-driven environment.

EDUCATION

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY - Waco, Texas

May 2022

Bachelor of Science in Computer Science

- Secondary Major in Mathematics
 - GPA 4.0
 - Active member of Computing 4 Compassion
 - Member of Association for Computing Machinery (ACM) and Alpha Lambda Delta
 - Relevant Coursework: Introduction to Computer Science I & II, Discrete Mathematics, Data Structures, Software Engineering, and Algorithms
-

EXPERIENCE

ACADEMIC SUPPORT PROGRAMS, BAYLOR UNIVERSITY

2019-Present

Supplemental Instruction Leader

- Led biweekly group review sessions to improve student understanding of course content
- Adapted teaching strategies to engage various learning styles
- Functioned as an intermediary between students and professor

THE REFINERY CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Summer 2019

Kids Ministry Intern

- Planned and executed weekend programming for children of all ages weekly
 - Learned effective management techniques to ensure smooth experience
 - Mentored new volunteers in teaching confidence and techniques
 - Responded to various emergency situations with calmness and efficiency
-

ADDITIONAL

- Proficient in C++, Java SE, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, LaTeX
- Comfortable with jQuery, Bootstrap, Python, C#, Intel x86 Assembly
- Taught fifth and sixth grade students basic programming skills through Computing 4 Compassion's igniteCS division
- Served as a Host Group Leader with Antioch Community Church
- Completed a Christian Leadership course, expanding knowledge of leadership and communication techniques